

2012 ASHRAE Dedicated Outdoor Air Systems Webcast Sponsorships

The April 2012 ASHRAE Dedicated Outdoor Air Systems Webcast will be viewed by more than 12,000 professionals in the HVAC&R market. As a leading company in the building industry, ASHRAE invites you to become a part of this unique learning experience for engineers, architects, contractors, building owners, developers, managers, and policy makers worldwide. Through a sponsorship program, you can reach these engineering leaders and highlight your dedication to high performing buildings.

See comments from 2011 ASHRAE webcast participants:
