

BOD Happy Hour Challenge – 1 July 2020

Match the Board Member with the activity and choice of drink.

Answers will be revealed during the Happy Hour using the Live Polling Feature.

Challenge your friends to see who gets the most right!

Board Member	What folks might not know about you	Your Guess	Drink of Choice	Your Guess
Adrienne Thomle	Am a twin and youngest of seven kids, I do not eat sweets, I love to run from 5K to marathons		Crisp, dry Chardonnay
	Am truly a lucky individual; I survived as a baby when my parents' home blew up from a faulty gas appliance, the 100 year flood in Rapid City in 1972, the 50 year flood in Minneapolis in 1986, too many blizzards to count. So far I am making it through the 100 year pandemic. My good luck doesn't make my weekly poker group happy.		Depending on the weather either a Mimosa or a beer with green olives.
Andres Sepulveda	Am very fond and passionate about soccer and supporter of Real Madrid. I am Real Madrid member since 1970. So I will get a 50-year gold pin from the Club President by the year end		Either a scotch (Ardbeg or Oban) or an old fashion. Sometimes my kids use the cherries for Shirley temples so plays into the decision making process on Old Fashions. Tough call!
Dennis Knight	Have been dog sledding in Alaska with the family who has won the Iditarod more than anyone else when I got snowed into Seward Alaska (their home town) the day after the Iditarod finished about 4 years ago. A really cool experience.		Glass of Spanish red wine ( I will tell you more about the cellar) and my favorite cocktail Pisco Sour from Perú.
Marites Calad	Most people are not aware that I am avid cook and have cast iron pots that can feed hundreds.		Mimosa
Michael Cooper	Played Ultimate Frisbee for Penn State Club Team and competed in the Collegiate Regionals. Also played for Club Team at Leeds University and played in tournaments at Oxford and Edinburgh University (Scotland)		Rockpit Brewing Company's Diaz de los Muertos (Mexican hot chocolate imperial stout aged in coconut rum barrels) Kentucky Bourbon (my spouse is from Bowling Green, Ky)
Mick Schwedler	Sing in barbershop quartets and enjoy wearing "Looney Tunes" socks to ASHRAE conventions		Woodford on the rocks with lime.
